In Career Mode, these can be acquired through the main career mode, or through gameplay. It's possible that the point of adding players will be to acquire coins, but also to improve your team. There is no minimum cap to acquire coins, so you can unlock the entire team for free. At the top end of the spectrum, you'll start out with fewer coins, but gaining hundreds of coins for purchases, or on every win. You'll use coins to unlock players, players, and kits.
