Autodesk Mechanical Desktop (AMD) is a web-based application that was included in the post-2014 release of Autodesk Applications. It allows users to share CAD drawings via the Internet, supports FTP, Remote Desktop Protocol (RDP), and other interfaces. AMD can communicate with other Autodesk software applications. File formats Autodesk provides formats for CAD drawings. AutoCAD and AutoCAD LT are able to read and write most formats supported by AutoCAD. In addition, version 2014 was able to import and export ABBYY's CadTalk file format. Autodesk 360 Autodesk 360 was launched in 2019, containing both the online platform for the free use of CAD software and the subscription-based Pro services. The service started with Autodesk AutoCAD and Autodesk Inventor, and Autodesk Vectorworks was added in 2020. See also

How can I preload un-subscribed users with asp.net? I am trying to build a shopping cart for my website. I have already developed most of the cart functionality, but I am having trouble with the preload items part of it. When a user adds an item to the cart, I want to preload the rest of the items in the cart. For example, if you are shopping at a website called Amazon, you go through the checkout process and you can see all the items you have added to your cart. How is this accomplished? How can I preload the items that are not yet in your cart? A: You can use Session like this `Session["MyList"] = listOfItems;` And to get the list you can use `List list = Session["MyList"] as List;` Q: Can't connect to server for

Phosphorylation of Chk1 protein at Ser317 and Ser345 causes DNA damage-dependent G2 checkpoint activation. The Chk1 checkpoint kinase is activated following DNA damage. Here we show that the phosphorylation of Ser317 and Ser345, two major sites of Chk1, is required for DNA damage-dependent G2 checkpoint activation in response to ionizing radiation and etoposide, but not UV. The phosphorylation is not required for Chk1's checkpoint function in response to replication stress. Furthermore, in contrast to the requirement for p34-Cdc2 kinase activation in promoting Chk1-dependent checkpoint activation, the kinase activity of Cdk1 is not necessary for DNA damage-dependent checkpoint activation. In contrast, Chk1-deficient cells are hypersensitive to DNA damage and exhibit p34-Cdc2 kinase-dependent checkpoint activation. We conclude that the role of Chk1 in DNA damage-dependent checkpoint activation is due to its ability to phosphorylate a number of substrates, including Cdc25C.

---

Dainius Kubilius
Dainius Kubilius (1902, Vilnius – 1993, Vilnius) was a Lithuanian politician, one of the most popular leaders of the Lithuanian independence movement during the inter-war period. Biography
